Certification for Military Family Leave for Qualifying Exigency under the Family and Medical Leave Act

U.S. Department of Labor Wage and Hour Division

DO NOT SEND FORM TO THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR. RETURN THE COMPLETED FORM TO THE EMPLOYER.

OMB Control Number: 1235-0003 Expires: 6/30/2023

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provides that eligible employees may take FMLA leave for a qualifying exigency while the employee's spouse, child, or parent (the military member) is on covered active duty or has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active duty. The FMLA allows an employer to require an employee seeking FMLA leave due to a qualifying exigency to submit a certification. 29 U.S.C. §§ 2613, 2614(c)(3). The employer must give the employee at least 15 calendar days to provide the certification. 29 C.F.R. § 825.305(b). If the employee fails to provide complete and sufficient certification, the employee's FMLA leave request may be denied. 29 C.F.R. § 825.313. Information about the FMLA may be found on the WHD website at http://www.dol.gov/agencies/whd/fmla.

SECTION I - EMPLOYER

Either the employee or the employer may complete Section I. While use of this form is optional, it asks the employee for the information necessary for a complete and sufficient qualifying exigency certification, which is set out at 29 C.F.R. § 825.309. You may not ask the employee to provide more information than allowed under the FMLA regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 825.309.

Employee Name:
PART A: COVERED ACTIVE DUTY STATUS
Covered active duty or call to covered active duty in the case of a member of the Regular Armed Forces means duty during the deployment of the member with the Armed Forces to a foreign country. Covered active duty or call to covered active duty in the case of a member of the Reserve components means duty during the deployment of the member with the Armed Forces to a foreign country under a Federal call or order to active duty in support of a contingency operation pursuant Section 688 of Title 10 of the United States Code; Section 12301(a) of Title 10 of the United States Code; Section 12304 of Title 10 of the United States Code; Section 12305 of Title 10 the United States Code; Section 12406 of Title 10 of the United States Code; chapter 15 of Title 10 of the United States Code; or, any other provision of law during a war or during a national emergency declared by the President or Congresso long as it is in support of a contingency operation. 10 U.S.C. § 101(a)(13)(B).
An employer may require the employee to provide a copy of the military member's active duty orders or of documentation issued by the military which indicates that the military member is on covered active duty or call to cover active duty status, and the dates of the military member's covered active duty service. This information need only provided to the employer once, unless additional leave is needed for a different military member or different deployment.
(3) Provide the dates of the military member's covered active duty service:
Please check one of the following and attach the indicated written document to support that the military member is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status:
☐ A copy of the military member's covered active duty orders
Other documentation from the military indicating that the military member is on covered active duty or has been notified of an impending call to covered active duty, such as official military correspondence from the military member's chain of command
☐ I have previously provided my employer with sufficient written documentation confirming the military member's covered active duty or call to covered active duty status
PART B: APPROPRIATE FACTS
Under the FMLA, leave can be taken for a number of qualifying exigencies. 29 C.F.R. § 825.126(b). Complete a sufficient certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a qualifying exigency includes available writt documentation which supports the need for leave such as a copy of a meeting announcement for informational briefing sponsored by the military, a document confirming the military member's Rest and Recuperation leave, or of documentation issued by the military which indicates that the military member has been granted Rest and Recuperational leave, or a document confirming an appointment with a third party (e.g., a counselor or school official, or staff at a capacity, a copy of a bill for services for the handling of legal or financial affairs). Please provide appropriate facts related to the particular qualifying exigency to support the FMLA leave request, including information on the type of qualifying exigency and any available written documentation of the exigency event.
(5) Select the appropriate Qualifying Exigency Category and, if needed, provide additional information related to the event:
☐ Short notice deployment (i.e., deployment within seven or fewer days of notice)
☐ Military events and related activities (e.g., official ceremonies or events, or family support and assistance program
☐ Childcare related activities for the child of the military member (e.g., arranging for alternative childcare):

		Care for the military member's parent (e.g., admitting or transferring the parent to a new care facility):	re facility):
		☐ Financial and legal arrangements related to the deployment (e.g., obtaining military identification cards)
		Counseling related to the deployment (i.e., counseling provided by someone other than a health care provided by	vider)
		Military member's short-term, temporary Rest and Recuperation leave (R&R) (leave for this reason to 15 calendar days for each instance of R&R)	n is limited
		Post deployment activities (e.g., arrival ceremonies, or reintegration briefings and events):
		Any other event that the employee and employer agree is a qualifying exigency:
